

How to weather the perfect storm:

A confluence of factors is creating a surge of special situations opportunities

Corporate issuers are facing a range of challenges that are to the benefit of special situations investors due to material growth in the scale of the opportunity set.

Adam Phillips, Head of Special Situations within Developed Markets at RBC Global Asset Management (UK) Limited, discusses how high levels of leverage, rising interest rates, changing consumer behaviours, and the geopolitical situation are coming together to create a surge in special situations opportunities.
